

ARTIST BRINGS

* Artist provides computer and audio interface if the exhibition period lasts no longer than 7 days. If exhibited longer, a potential rental agreement between the artist and the technical director of the venue needs to be made no less than six weeks prior to the opening of the show.

 If a longer distance than 5m needed for safe installation between site and locked ventilated box(see below), the artist requests that a longer USB cable be provided.

VENUE PROVIDESTech:

- Control monitor, HDMI
- HDMI cable
- 8 x audio cable, 1/4' balanced jack to 1/4' balanced jack, length between structures and locked storage of computer

Material:

structures needs to be built on-site, wooden material won't be transported internationally

- Assist in retrieving material for the structure and assistance when building them, (transportation, tools for carpentry, assistance)
- Tools necessary: Saw, electronic screddriwer and drill for multiple screws
- Yardstick

Other:

- locked storage or ventilated box for computer and interface. Suitable arrangement discussed with the technical director.
- keyboard and mouse
- insurance for all artist's technical instrumentation (incl. computer, sound card etc.)